

Arch Enemy

Everything Everything

Dinosaur
Now awake
Sphinx of Grease
Faceless Bloat
Sacrifice
In your name
Blubber Mount
Sewage Moon

Jets like wire
Cut your body, they
Slice your teats
Calcified
Stately cheeks
I wonder how you
Come into my dreams at night
Bow before you
I am your knife!

(Ha, ha)
Fatberg, you smile
With your grave wax eyes
(Ha, ha)
Will you consume me?

Rise as my arch
Enemy, enemy
I was lonely, lonely
My enemy
You put the poison into me
I was lonely without you

You are the King of Oil
Now congeal
Through these parks
Over dogs
Grey cholesterol
Down you go
Flushed and clean
As fresh as my bouncing bones
But you grew

You filled the cavern, bided time
From my mind you bled away
But I hear you calling
And you come into my dreams at night
And sunk in your head is a bicycle crown!

(Ha, ha)
Fatberg, your eyes

I need my arch
Enemy, enemy
I was lonely, lonely
My enemy
You put the poison into me
I was lonely without you

Arch enemy, my enemy
I was lonely, lonely
My enemy
You put the poison into me
Now I'm lonely without you

It's time to show your face!
