

Enter the Mirror

Everything Everything

You and me
You are my blood
Walking in the red light
Talking 'bout the dreams we had

Making fire
Making fire spread
Scar across a landscape
This is how we change the world

I love you 'cause you're smashing into everything
That's why I'm in
All of us are smashing into everything

Look at me now
Two men enter the mirror!
Look at me now
Two men enter the mirror!

Party on
Party all night
Party's never over if the party's in your head
Not yet!

In the car
Abattoir stars
Watching as the flames grow dimmer as the night goes on
Not!
And we talk about
First kiss
To the abyss
Hope they need a DJ somewhere in the afterlife
Not
Yet!
You and me
You are my blood
Burning in the backwood
This is how we change the world
Not!
It's not over yet!

I love you 'cause you're smashing into everything
That's why I'm in
All of us are smashing into everything
Not!
It's not over yet!

Two men enter the mirror!
Not
Yet!
Two men enter the mirror!

Look at me now!
Two men enter the mirror!
Not!
You're breaking my heart!
Two men enter the mirror!

Not!

It's not over yet!

Two men enter the mirror!

Not!

It's not over yet!

Two men enter the mirror!

Not!

It's not over yet!
