Lost Powers

Everything Everything

I did what anybody would that day
No speechless gibbon in the road
Not me

I get smaller every day
My God made you all from clay
(And He say)

Come on, you only lost your mind
Come on, you only lost your mind

I said the children were a lie, for real
Don't let those crisis actor kids get me

But I keep sliding down the well
Too many silly infidel
(Well, well, well)

Come on, you only lost your mind
Come on, you only lost your mind

I don't sleep, I don't sleep
Death will never come for me
I don't sleep, I don't sleep
Death will never come for me
'Cause I don't sleep, I don't sleep
Death will never come for me
'Cause I don't sleep, I don't sleep
I don't sleep

Come on, you only lost your mind
Come on, you only lost your mind
Come on, you only lost your mind
Come on, you only lost your mind
Come on, you only lost your mind
Come on, you only lost your mind
Your mind
