

D'elusion

Everything Is Recorded

Confusion
Sparks through my mind
Your touch and affection
You don't belong to me
Broken heart, wounded mind
I want something that will last in time
Confusion
Sparks through my mind

Delusion
Delusion
Delusion
Delusion

Delusion
Sparks through your mind
Pollution
Why you wanna waste your time?
Empty hands can touch my soul
The only thing you'll ever know
Delusion
Sparks through your mind

Delusion
Delusion
Delusion
Delusion

Doubt it makes your visions blurry
And I, I can't help but worry
Love is love and there's no hurry
Still the heart can't help but worry

Doubt it makes your visions blurry
And I, I can't help but worry
Love is love and there's no hurry
Still the heart can't help but worry

The question is whether or not somebody is taking your mind (mind). We have a feeling that when you are free here and if free will exists there's always the possibility of us becoming physically free
(Delusion)
But it starts up here

Delusion
Delusion
Delusion

I don't wanna see, I don't wanna be free
I don't wanna see, stay blind and let me be, yeah
I don't wanna see, I don't wanna be free
I don't wanna see, stay blind and let me be, yeah
