

Balance

Eves Karydas

You broke my car, then, you back home and broke my heart
I lost myself for you, I broke my rules for you
I felt that fear, the same one I feel every new year
So foreign and so new, I lost myself for you

I'll never take it back, I promise myself that
No, no, no, never
I'll never take it back, I promise myself that

I'd do anything for a soul, for a soul, 'cause I feel nothing
But I know there's some way to bring back my balance
A soul, for a soul, 'cause I feel nothing
But I know there's someone to bring back my balance

To bring back my balance
To bring back my balance
To bring back my balance
Balance (balance, balance)

Well, here I go, like a rocket detaches from cargo
I know I needed more, that's what the space is for Well, here I am, migrating bird in a new land
I know I needed more, that's what the sky is for

I'll never take it back, I promise myself that
No, no, no, never
I'll never take it back, I promise myself that

I'd do anything for a soul, for a soul, 'cause I feel nothing
But I know there's some way to bring back my balance
A soul, for a soul, 'cause I feel nothing
But I know there's someone to bring back my balance

To bring back my balance
To bring back my balance
To bring back my balance
Balance (balance, balance)

Never take it, never, never take it back
Promise myself, promise, promise myself that
Never take it, never, never take it back
I'd do any, I'd do, I'd do anything for a soul

For a soul, 'cause I feel nothing
But I know there's some way to bring back my balance
A soul, for a soul, 'cause I feel nothing
But I know there's someone to bring back my balance

To bring back my balance
To bring back my balance
To bring back my balance
Balance (balance, balance)
