

Never late if you're always gonna change the time
Defining trait is you never can make up your mind
First I thought that it was cute
Now it's giving me a migraine (my brain)
So why you acting so aloof
Not like you're in the C.I.A.

Standing out on the road
Where did you go? (where did you go go)
Waiting out here alone
But you never show (could you let me know know)
Could have gone my way
Or hit the highway
But you went sideways (sideways uh yeah)
Standing out on the road
Where did you go? (where did you go go)

Yeah I thought it would be fun if we went somewhere for the weekend
Old-fashioned by the pool, maybe jump into the deep end
I get you're playing it cool
Like it's some type of rule
But baby it's kinda rude
When I'm here making these moves on you
Yeah I thought it would be fun
Maybe we could even hold hands (a little romance)
And now I'm

Standing out on the road
Where did you go? (where did you go go)
Waiting out here alone
But you never show (could you let me know know)
Could have gone my way
Or hit the highway
But you went sideways (sideways uh yeah)
Standing out on the road
Where did you go? (where did you go go)
