

Take 2

Eves Karydas

We fell apart
In the condiments aisle
But, to be fair, in our defense, babe
We did it in style
And I know it's my fault
(I know it's my fault)
Wish I could read your mind
I've been on edge this whole day
You said you need a little time

I don't like this feeling, so blue
Staring at the ceiling, thinking 'bout you
I'd give anything just for a re-do
Ooh, one time is bad luck, I just want a take-two
Ooh, I'd wash away the bad blood but you know it takes two

There's something 'bout you
That gets under my skin
Little things you do (na, na, na, na)
(Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)
Isn't it a shame?
Love was such an easy game
Yesterday

I don't like this feeling, so blue
Staring at the ceiling, thinking 'bout you
I'd give anything just for a re-do
Ooh, one time is bad luck, I just want a take-two
Ooh, I'd wash away the bad blood but you know it takes two

Let me break the ice
I wanna make you smile
I wanna love you right
Put sparkles in your eyes
(Sparkles in your eyes)
Won't let the sun set on this tonight

Ooh, one time is bad luck, I just want a take-two
Ooh, I'd wash away the bad blood but you know it takes two

I don't like this feeling, so blue
Staring at the ceiling, thinking 'bout you
I'd give anything just for a re-do
Ooh, one time is bad luck, I just want a take-two
