

Nothing's Perfect

Evidence

I write my best when I'm late to be Somewhere else the game is taking me
Before they had a plane for me
Trains and automobiles priorities of wavering
I'm shaky at best
I don't write unless it write itself
There's no one like myself
There's no one like you either
Despite what they might sell
Nothing's perfect. If it is, it's at the surface
Love is not for purchase with an empty heart the money is worth less
The goal is make a beat and write a couple verses
In a day's work, shaking off spell, reversing curses
God's transmission, there are factors
Born in L.A., most the people are actors
Getting up is easy. It's hard to fall backwards
The raw classic got me out my seat like carjackers
The greatest, 100,000 hours made the cadence
My life is like the music to a playlist
All my favorites are the non-debated's
My favorites made my life easy when the shit was getting compli cated
Run it up, this shit wasn't cut
Lift a couple seconds then I said this was enough
This shit wasn't stepped on while that other shit was dust
That other shit they stepping on's a brand I couldn't trust

Run it up, this shit wasn't cut
Lift a couple seconds till I said this was enough
