

Control from Above

Evile

Clash with behemoths
Beside the Gods
Abolished titans
Against the odds
Entrust in brothers creation
In clay they're born
Decreed as mortals
By the deity of war

Control from above
Obey or be disposed of

Immolated offerings brought
Deity deceived
Entrails imprison gold
Gold hides treachery
Outrage, betrayal
His people scorned
Inferno seized
Prometheus is warned

Control from above
Obey

Refusal to see my people being denied
The flame will be returned, be revived
Ascend Olympus, reclaim the fire
Restore the blaze a God expired

Second deceit perceived, a wounded pride
Subservient creatures to me have lied
Subvert authority, with ill intent
Call Force and Violence for punishment

Punishment
Punishment
For deceit you are put
To your death
To your death
To your death
For deceit you are bound

Chained to the rock
Proclaimed a hellion
I have not one regret
For my rebellion
Perpetual agony
The vulture feasts
There is no force that can compel my speech
