

Monolith

Evile

Monolith
Monolith
Monolith
Monolith

In my dreams it wanders
Silhouette of stone in earth be stood
As it creeps beyond us
Greet the form awake minds never would

Dark
Nameless and old
Void
Sinister and cold

Monolith
Release me from your hold
Its lurking goes untold
Monolith
Infecting day and night
It never leaves my sight

Praying for awakening
Lowered eyes devour perseverance
Spilling tales of anguish
Dismissing the weight of fear-filled words

Same sleep of torment
Crow falls to its death at evil's side
Paralysed to see thee
Monolith appear night after night

Dark
Nameless and old
Void
Sinister and cold

Monolith
Release me from your hold
Its lurking goes untold
Monolith
Infecting day and night
It never leaves my sight
It never leaves

Nameless and old
Sinister and cold
Nameless and old
Sinister and cold

Monolith
Release me from your hold
Its lurking goes untold
Monolith
Infecting day and night
It never leaves my sight

Monolith
Monolith
Monolith

It never leaves my sight
