

Paralysed

Evile

Wake into the void
That takes my sanity as it destroys
These screams from beyond
Eyes wide every night
My concrete limbs are engulfed in a fight
Dark spirits take control

Smoke begins to rise
Frozen in myself, immobilized
Motions would break
Cries are compromised
The blackened fog, it starts to mummify
I sacrifice what's mine

Paralysed
Paralysed
Hypnotised
Forced down

Paralysed (Paralysed)
Paralysed (Paralysed)
Demoralised
By the fiend

I try to muster the will to scream
The crushing burden, it's not a dream
Mystery, a thought for me
To give in to this entity
Reassessed, be oppressed
Invite inside this crippling pest

I summon them in
Crawling under my skin
Into my conscience
To live within
Feeding on my sanity
Breathing in my fears
Don't ever leave me
I hold my terror near

Edge of the void
Edge of the void

Paralysed
