

The Unknown

Evile

I await and fear the unknown
I await and fear the unknown
I await and fear the unknown
I await

I await and fear the unknown
I await for you to be

Unborn a seed, a life conceived awaiting
She'll meet our world pursuing harmony
But with her gaze, will she see someone prepared?
The die is cast
Pure blood hand unto me
She'll need a hand to grasp
Can I believe?
Father, be there

Deep down I tremble, at surface smile
Will I resemble what's left behind?
Sworn to protect now who grows inside
Be now my teacher, be now my guide
Fear the unknown

Serenity deceased by clouded reason
Will damaged ways pass on to who you'll be?
Stained in my mind, "will I feel nothing?" replays
Am I a fraud?
Rejected I would be
She needs my open arms
Can I believe?
Father, be there

Deep down I tremble, at surface smile
Will I resemble what's left behind?
Sworn to protect now who grows inside
Be now my teacher, be now my guide
Fear the unknown

My flesh and blood
Pull me out of this flood
For I will be there
I will be there

Deep down I tremble, at surface smile
Will I resemble what's left behind?
Sworn to protect now who grows inside
Be now my teacher, be now my guide

I await and fear the unknown
I await
I await and fear the unknown
The unknown
I will be there in the unknown
