

Corporal Jigsore Quandary

Evocation

Excised and anatomised, deviscerated disarray
The torso diverged with pride
Deftly amputated, evulsed limbs now defunct
The trunk imbrued, tatty stumps used as lugs
For a chondrin puzzle so quaint
Head and body decollate
A heaving mass so quiescent...

Scattered and scrambled, your teasegment grows
- a bloody caricature to make whole
A squirming grisly jigsaw, detrital fragments fit so snug
- that missing piece will leave you stumped
Totally desassembled, nicely sliced and diced
- a cold mannequin once resembled
Real cranium teaser, carved from flesh and bone
- so mystifying...

Battered and diffused, with placating blows
- a human jigsaw to make whole
A sequacious pattern which once fitted so snug
- joining together each dubious lump
Ravaged disassembly, neatly cubed and diced
- a cold mannequin reassembled
Astute brain teaser, incorporate flesh and bone
So mortifying...

An incessant game - methodically made
With each cumulative piecing - of commensated meat...

Bi-manual reconstruction, eldritch problem complete
A convented effigy
A pathological toy, each chunk rigorously
Inter mortis locking, as you pathogenically rot
Such a perplexing task
To fit the remains in the casket
Uliginous mess so quiescent...
