

Well Of Despair

Evocation

welcome inside the well of despair here emotions are based upon fear where truth is nothing but pain and your punishment is to survive no more inside rejected and twisted insane trapped in a rootless cyclone that puts your puzzle apart alone and left in this cage the masters are pulling your strings too late you became aware that you live in this well of despair welcome onboard your oneway to hell that tracks to your darkest inside utopia is what you lose when you're trapped in this dome of despair no more outside reflecting and waiting in vain chained with you demons behind drained and now empty inside it hurts to conquer in this darkness to burn the bridges to your past it hurts when no one knows you failing the pain when no one's there to catch your fall
