

Hispania (The Siege of Saguntum)

Ex Deo

The time has come, havoc will rise
Death from my cold hands
To strike the Eagle...
At its nest we lay the torch of fire

Women, children
Enslaved forever
Every man put to death
Conquer Hispania!

Spaniard, Ally of Rome
Plunder and destroy!
In the name of Carthage,
Blood shall reap the Earth

This is my oath; I uphold to you father,
I have started my duty in honor and in blood

"And no one else could ever see you coming... Commander"

I will bring this war to you
I will see the lions eat the heart of the living
I will see the world turned to dust

"Obsurum per Obscurius... Imperium per Imperio... Carthago Nova
..."

Resistance dismantled
No chance to surrender
I lay siege to Saguntum
To install my supremacy
Arrogant Roman,
Seek my crucifixion
I seek your destruction

I place my hands in the depths of eternity...
I sacrifice my soul for the gods of apathy

"Rome offers you peace or war, General. Choose... It matters not to Rome. This is war!"
