

Vespasian

Ex Deo

The sun brings light to the end
Stability through force and power
In this dominion, I will bring justice

Bring forth the legions of the chosen
Set forth the shields of war
Of war

Destiny is mine, the sounds of madness, despair, and agony
For the true voice of Rome
Embellish the shrine, destroy the opposition of fire

Vespasian, rise to the glory of light
Hear me victorious
Feel my spear pierce through the earth

Bring forth the legions of the chosen
Set forth the shields of war... of war

Hear the chants of the people
Finally, freedom is upon us
Rejoice!
(Rejoice!)

I walked amongst the gods
Deified through defiance

Destiny is mine, the sounds of madness, despair, and agony
For the true voice of Rome
Embellish the shrine, destroy the opposition of fire
Vespasian, rise!
Vespasian, rise!
