Loving you so easy
I think I need you
Loving you so easy
I think I need you
Loving you so easy
I think I need you
Loving you so easy
I think I need you

I love that you're awkward at talking to strangers
And never complain but your excited by danger
Your laugh is contagious
Get drunk and you're shameless
You're happy in a B&B pretending it's Vegas
We listen to playlists
As we tell each-other everything
Who you've loved, who you've lost, 7 deadly sins
Where you been and where you wanna go eventually
Both unbalanced chemically
Whatever happens let it be
I know you'll always be that friend to me
And yeh at times be my enemy
This love we got is strange but we do this sh*t professionally
Roll with this for centuries as long we're an entity
It's meant to be

It's only the outside that they see
You've seen the best and worst of me
We are fucked up perfectly
That's how I know we're always
Love don't come with a guarantee
You've seen the best and worst of me
We are fucked up perfectly
That's how I know we're always

Loving you so easy
I think I need you
Loving you so easy
I think I need you

You said I ain't perfect
I ain't even 90%
But you worship the ground that I walk on
I know from the nights that we spent
When we like to pretend
That we're people we ain't then it's back to the day job again
Cos we ain't like nobody else
And everybody else thinks
They're in another world
Guess we're coming out our shell
When we find that special someone who put us under spells
Knows you so well sticking by you heaven or hell
I know you'll always be that friend to me
This love we got is strange but we do this sh*t professionally

It's only the outside that they see

I know you with me on a level
So I'll go everywhere you'll ever go
Cos we got something that they'll never know
Cos in love you never know

Loving you so easy
I think I need you
Loving you so easy
I think I need you
Loving you so easy
I think I need you
Loving you so easy
I think I need you

It's only the outside that they see
That's how I know we're always
That's how I know we're always

Loving you so easy
I think I need you
Loving you so easy
I think I need you
Loving you so easy
I think I need you
Loving you so easy
I think I need you
