

Divergent Falling

Excalion

Gone, I compare with none
They would never let me miss a step, catch my breath
Done, I'm finally down and stunned
Tried my best with this stumbling mind, fell behind

They speak to me like I cannot see
Flood of fortune awaits
I should leave a mark, blinded by the dark
Witness divergent falling

See me on my way, on false ideals I prey
Step inside the cast a prison man made
I am on my way, wind up toy astray
Candle burns fast in endless charade

More, exhaust, consume explore
I've done all I can to leave a trace in this maze
Soar, recall what life was for?
I am somebody else's dream but no more me
