

I Left My Heart at Home

Excalion

When the snow arrived it was again the time
To close the door behind me and head afar
Now a month has passed, got some words at last
Your letter will guide me, like the brightest star

In the winds of the world, I lose my direction
Take a wrong turn or step and drift away
But still find my way back

Oh, I left my heart at home
The road has kept me away far too long
All the wonders that I have seen
Cannot compare to what awaits me
At home

It's a change of seasons, this is what I've been dreaming
I'm coming back to you, will all still look the same?
No news from you, I've been out of reach
The hour grows late, but our time will be reclaimed

In the light of the morning sun, it finally appeared
The tree of our lives, the roots of our youth
I am finally here now

Once again it's time for goodbyes
Until we will see again
Meantime let's meet under the North Star
Sometimes the space in between
Can turn out to be a good thing
That has made us what we are and what we can be
