

Anger, Hate & Destruction

Exciter

(M: J. Ricci/D. Beehler / L: D. Beehler)

Trapped inside this prison cell
You nmake life a living hell
I always gave for you
I can't believe what you put me through

Violent destruction comes over you
Thoughts of suicide it's nothing new

I watch you wreck the place
Angel's heart, Satan's face
Excuses running thin
I've got to leave this hell I'm in

Black rage of anger, smashing walls
I think you'd shoot yourself if you had the balls

Nothing learned, nothing taught
Nothing found, nothing sought
What is this you put me through
Can not chose to be with you
Inside's just an empty head
Matter's dead, no cells are fed
Is this the life you want to show
Well, it's not what I want to know

Your violent tendencies have driven me
Away from you
If I stayed I know I would have shot ya dead
Yes someone should...
Shoot ya down!

Violent destruction comes over you
Thoughts of suicide it's nothing new
