

Disconnected

Execution Day

I can feel your heart beating
Your eyes they struggle to look inside
Oh, how I wish I was dreaming
But, I'll stay strong and just swallow my pride
You tell me that there is nothing left
And we both know that we cannot escape
The pain that you caused both of us
But I'll stay strong and just break away

This is for those feeling broke and alone
Shout it out with me

I can hear your whisper from a mile away
I can feel the distance as I'm tearing at the seams
We tried to fix it
Inside, conflicted
Some wounds were never meant to mend
Disconnected

I hope your proud with the choice you've made
Your eyes they struggle to look in mine
Do you have trouble sleeping at night?
Cause I do

I see the reaper closing in on me
I feel you more than I see you lately
I'm haunted by the sound of your name
It brought on the darkness inside of me

This is for those feeling broke and alone
Shout it out with me

I can hear your whisper from a mile away
I can feel the distance as I'm tearing at the seams
We tried to fix it
Inside, conflicted
Some wounds were never meant to mend
Disconnected

Replay, replay
In my head
"Some pieces just don't fit" is what you said
Replay, replay
In my head
Too late to come back from
What you did

Our ties have been misdirected
A missed connection
The line is dead

I can hear your whisper from a mile away
I can feel the distance as I'm tearing at the seams

I can hear your whisper from a mile away
I can feel the distance as I'm tearing at the seams
We tried to fix it

Inside, conflicted
Some wounds were never meant to mend
