

ESCAPE

Execution Day

Save myself from being part of anything
This silence makes my skin crawl
Have you ever wanted to feel the fall?
To feel something at all
I can't pretend I don't feel the end
So let me go and breathe again

Every word I say it gets pushed away
Losing sleep for nothing at all
Everything I hate is so suffocating
Losing my mind I can't escape this world I hate

Breaking down, my decay
Never fail to feel the same
I'm sick of running away
Everything I love is already packed up and gone since
I'll be left to take the blame

Every word I say it gets pushed away
Losing sleep for nothing at all
Everything I hate is so suffocating
Losing my mind I can't escape this world I hate

I've been fighting the process
A constant struggle for progress
No reason to digest
The definition of this sick mess
But I still carry this burden
And all I feel is this hurting
I need a diversion I am the product of this sick mess
Hey hey
I am the product of this sick mess

Every word I say it gets pushed away
Losing sleep for nothing at all
Everything I hate is so suffocating
Losing my mind I can't escape
Escape escape
I can't escape escape escape
This world I hate
This world I hate
