

GHOST

Execution Day

Face down, alone in the gutter I'm
Knocked out, deserve all my suffering
Want you to kill me with kindness
Force me to beg on my knees
Do to me anything that you

Please just try to see my side
And all the pain I've left behind
This is where the shadows hide
A figment of my one track mind

Stop running away
From the ghost of your past flowing through your veins
Just face it
You'll find a way
You'll find a way to break these chains
And all that remains
Is the will of your self worth
But it's all the same
I'll find a, I'll find a way
I'll find a way to break these...

Chained up broken in a mindless cell
I fight a war within
My own personal hell
You've come so far
Fought through the pain
You think it's different
But it's all the same

Take your thoughts
And wash away (wash away)
All those vices standing in your way

Stop running away
From the ghost of your past flowing through your veins
Just face it
You'll find a way
You'll find a way to break these chains
And all that remains
Is the will of your self worth
But it's all the same
I'll find a, I'll find a way
I'll find a way to break these...

Living with your ghost inside me
Living with this pain I'm hiding
I feel the ghost of my sorrows past
I feel it's pain starting to relapse

Stop running away
From the ghost of your past flowing through your veins
Just face it
You'll find a way
You'll find a way to break these chains
And all that remains
Is the will of your self worth

But it's all the same
I'll find a, I'll find a way
I'll find a way to break these chains!
