

HOLLOW

Execution Day

I put these words onto the pages
But they never made sense, made sense to me
Never showed me who I should be
I'm numb to feel the changes
It's like I'm gone, no trace no trace of me
Watch me burn out hopelessly

When you look in my eyes
Can you see what I'm feeling?
I reach for the stars but I can't break the ceiling
I've been losing days and missing my nights
Missin' all the time I had left to write

But I've been fixing myself and my honest mistakes
My life anymore runs to a different pace
I'm not giving up right?
These dreams haunt me all night
It's hard not to run when you lost the fight

It's hard to live this life
When you're feeling hollow
I start to fantasize
Not being here tomorrow
As I walk to the gallows
Breathing is shallow
I start to feel like I lost this battle
Try to realize
A new horizon brings tomorrow

Do you know how it feels
With the odds out to get you?
Without a second to heal
While you're laying stranded with no way to get through

Breathe in breathe out let it go
Breathe in don't fret tomorrow
But it's hard to let it go
When its all you know

But I've been fixing myself and my honest mistakes
My life anymore runs to a different pace
I'm not giving up right?
These dreams haunt me all night
It's hard not to run when you lost the fight

It's hard to live this life
When you're feeling hollow
I start to fantasize
Not being here tomorrow
As I walk to the gallows
Breathing is shallow
I start to feel like I lost this battle
Try to realize

It's hard to live this life

I fantasize

It's hard to live this life
I fantasize

(I fantasize
(I fantasize

It's hard to live this life
I start to fantasize

It's hard to live this life
When you're feeling hollow
I start to fantasize
Not being here tomorrow
As I walk to the gallows
Breathing is shallow
Try to realize
