

MONSTER

Execution Day

Here I am in all my glory
Reading back the same old story
Classic case Of Déjà vu
Replay in my head again

These Demons deep inside me
Creepin out, but they're still hiding
Tellin' tales of monsters in the deepest parts of my head

Tell me the truth, it will set you free

I wanna get away
Before I break at the seams
Getaway I'll run away
Run away from all of my pain
Do you hear me?
I think I'm coming undone
A void you can't see
You can't stop the monster

You can't stop
You can't stop

Everytime I sit in silence
Overcome with thoughts of violence
Can't contain the constant struggle building up in my bones
This time I can't contain the carnage that unfolds
I think I lost all control

I wanna get away
Before I break at the seams
Getaway I'll run away
Run away from all of my pain
Do you hear me?
I think I'm coming undone
A void you can't see
You can't stop the monster

Run! Run! Run!
Can't escape the monster

I wanna get away
Before I break at the seams
Getaway I'll run away
Run away from all of my pain
Do you hear me?
I think I'm coming undone
A void you can't see
You can't stop the monster

I wanna get away
Before I break at the seams
Getaway I'll run away
Run away from all of my pain
Do you hear me?
I think I'm coming undone
A void you can't see
