

Dead, Deader, Dearest

Exhumed

In the splintered mirror of a jaundiced mind's eye's view
The rot spreads everywhere, as abscesses burst and spew
Necrosis profligate, with nothing living in sight
Death without life, ubiquitous blight, a deathscape of cadaverous white

Dead, deader, dearest
Scorning existence, pursuing excresence
Dead, deader, dearest
Forsaking sentience, embracing pestilence
Dead, deader, dearest
Abandon respiration, accept termination
Dead, deader, dearest
Dead to their cries, deader veils 'pon our eyes, dearest dreams
, now realized

Death lasts forever, there is no respite from its clutching grasp
It looms in every future, and is the sum total of our collective past
Necrophiliac praises, echo through catacombs of mortality
Naught stirs to receive them, for death has deceived them, subsuming eternity

Dead, deader, dearest
Scorning existence, pursuing excresence
Dead, deader, dearest
Forsaking sentience, embracing pestilence
Dead, deader, dearest
Abandon respiration, accept termination
Dead, deader, dearest
Dead to their cries, deader veils 'pon our eyes, dearest dreams
, now realized
