

Defecated

Exhumed

Bound and gagged in my abattoir
For anthropophagus butchery
Salivation fills my maw
As I polish my finest cutlery
A pound of flesh, to ingest and digest
Served with crème fraîche

You will witness as I gnash
Pieces of you prepared with panache
Lipid morsels on a skewer
Clean my plate until you are...

Defecated
Defecated
Die as you have lived, a total piece of excrement
Defecated

Hack away at extremities
One-by-one, to be savored
A truly delectable amputee
As I devour the deftly dismembered
Your carrion, I set upon
A true gourmand

Eyes agog as you witness
Your deltoid served as my main dish
Pan-seared with some melted ghee
Once digested you will be...

Defecated
Defecated
Die as you have lived, a total piece of excrement
Defecated

Gleefully feasting on long pig fondue
Delighted in your expression
Expelling my bowels in your purview
Observing your own digestion

Adipose tissue and blood I have culled
Makes a sweet marinade
Organs and sweetmeats are finally pulled
As your consciousness fades

A digestif of liquefied brains
Feces and shit are all that remains

Defecated
Defecated
Die as you have lived, a total piece of shit
