Septic Five

Exhumed

It's what I enjoy, though some might judge
My penchant for excrement and sludge
I want to rest in your septic tank
It's great to reflect in a place so rank

150 an hour to bring equipment in
Camera set to film me swim
The tank closed by my associate
Time to revel in your shit

Ensconced in sewage covered latex
Sniffing effervescent grime
Plunging deep into this cesspool
Tasting your excreted chyme

One man's dung is this man's pleasure
Aberrant by any measure
Amongst the dreck is where I thrive
My appellation septic five
