

Myself

Exilia

It's so hard to see through
The fog hides my hands and
It's so hard to walk through
This torment and I'm lost in fear
I'm lost in here
I'm lost
Screaming and bleeding
Somewhere inside, in my skin,
Bleeding and screaming
Somewhere I dive into the void
To find myself
Feel too blind to see through
My faults and my sorrow
It's so hard to go through
My scars to find out my worst fear
I'm lost in here
I'm lost
Screaming and bleeding
Somewhere inside, in my skin,
Bleeding and screaming
Somewhere I dive into the void
To find myself
My soul
Something inside me
Something inside will not heal
Screaming and bleeding
Somewhere inside, in my skin,
Bleeding and screaming
Tell me where I belong,
Tell me where I belong,
Screaming and bleeding
Somewhere I dive into the void
I fall into the void
Can't find myself
Myself
