

Victory or Death!

Exmortus

Holding the line steadfast
Violence and bloodshed all await
This is no nightmare
You must accept your dismal fate

Facing against the odds
You realize it's time to go
Do not fall back, be strong
And ready yourselves for the final blow
Face the bitter end
Is there no hope left?
Scream aloud your battle cry
Victory or Death!

Proudly we bear our arms
We shall reclaim supremacy
Staying true as steel
Ensure we leave our legacy

Fight on with steel resolve
We'll never surrender or retreat
Courage and victory will be snatched
From the great jaws of defeat

Face the bitter end
Is there no hope left?
Scream aloud your battle cry
Victory or Death!

Face the bitter end
Is there no hope left?
Scream aloud your battle cry
Victory or Death!
