Kissing through the phone
Gazing at each other through the phone
Embracing each other through the phone
Our love is being tested

Hit it

Look, my heart is like a magnet, baby
It's being attracted to you
It would be crazier to fight against these feelings
Although there is some distance between us

You cry on the phone
Say that it's all right
Although I didn't ask
Are you trying to make me worry?
Or are you trying to calm me down?
If that's the case, Magnetic Love
Just believe in it, oh

Miss you

Our love is becoming more and more genuine
As it keeps being tested by distance
Miss you
I'm sure it's destiny
I'm by your side, baby, always

Oh Oh Oh Oh Wherever you are
Oh Oh Oh Oh I can feel your presence

Yeah I'm going to a party tonight again, baby
But ever since I met you
There are no other girls to me on this planet
I only have eyes for you

Actually I feel like
I'm the one who should be more worried
They say once you fall in love
You become more beautiful
More radiant
But Magnetic Love
I will just put my trust in you, oh

Miss you
Our love is becoming more and more genuine
As it keeps being tested by distance
Miss you
I'm sure it's destiny
Close your eyes, come on baby anytime

Oh Oh Oh Oh Wherever you are
Oh Oh Oh Oh Believe in me

Hello, It's me
I just want to hear your voice, yeah

Polishing my appearance when I'm by myself
I want you to say those words to me when we meet next time "Jeez!"
The surprise is bigger because we don't see each other that often
I've turned into a man you can hardly recognize

Love that is bound by distance
Is like a strong wind (The fire of love)
It will stop the fire but
Also make it burn stronger than before

Miss you
Our love is becoming more and more genuine
As it keeps being tested by distance
Miss you
I'm sure it's destiny
I'm by your side, baby, always

Oh Oh Oh Oh Wherever you are (The heart is always)
Oh Oh Oh Oh I can always feel your presence

The time in which we're apart from each other
Is testing our love
Even if we're apart
I can feel your presence
