The reason why I can't sleep, I pretended not to know
To slice open tomorrow with this hand,
We keep invisible knife in our heart
On the day I am shaken in the world without love

Let's carve out starless night sky
The paper cuts in my hand by light
That seem to transiently break with shining light
The paper cuts in my hand
Can you see, the dreamt world

In the fleeting moments that go by too rapidly
I live every day life, filled with what I can only do now

When I close my eyes you are always with me
On the day I feel like I can't comprehend love

Let's carve out starless night sky
The paper cuts in my hand by light
That seem to transiently break with shining light
The paper cuts in my hand
Your endearing smile

The moments where we can't meet teach the True meaning of love

Don't wanna be out of time, even when we are apart
The paper cuts in my hand, you're not alone
Let's carve out starless night sky
The paper cuts in my hand by light
That seem to transiently break with shining light
The paper cuts in my hand
