The red full moon floats in the lonely night
I feel this overturning feeling building up inside of me
A piercing stare lights up the night and flies from the cage
Ambushing my prey in the sleepless forest

I need your love
I shouted gimme love gimme love
I will scream and shout
That love, light it up light it up
Can you feel it now? this thirst
Will you gimme love gimme love?
I'm going

Oh are you ready? oh

You better watch out, the fangs chasing you, danger
Watch out, reason shouting out
You need to know I will lose my control
You better watch out, thunder ripping out your heart
Watch out, opposites fighting against each other
You need to run, roared a groan

A lost little lamb with innocent eyes, look around
The soft breathing beside you is the lone wolf

Can you feel it now? this loneliness
Can you gimme love gimme love?
I'm going

Oh are you ready? oh

You better watch out, this desire is danger
Watch out, this uncontrollable impulse
You need to know I will lose my control
You better watch out, thunder is burning in my chest
Watch out, I just don't want to hurt you
You need to run, roared a groan

Watch out, beside you
Baby watch out, are you ready to go
Baby, watch out, soon, over there
Baby, watch out, watch out
I'm going

Oh I've got you crying oh

You better watch out, the fangs chasing you, danger
Watch out, reason shouting out
You need to know I will lose my control
You better watch out, thunder ripping out your heart
Watch out, opposites fighting against each other
