Hey hey hey
The moment that I didn't want to face has come
It feels like we've all gone numb
Hey hey hey
Relax, let your thoughts float freely
In the parting day

I carved your face into classics
The last thing I checked before turning away
My feelings became more empty
It's all good alright no lie
Just count me as a cloud that drifted afar

It'll reverse in the end, turn back
Like a boomerang

Getting thrown far away by love
Again, turn back
Like a boomerang
That promised to follow love and come back
Lively saying "giving up on you"
Hey hey hey
Because no matter how far I fly
You're still my origin
I'll turn back toward you

Tik tak boom
Gotta make a move

Hey hey hey
The next station is an unfamiliar and unknown future
Unfold once again during the journey
Hey hey hey
When the direction spins in a circle I'll still turn back
I'm not going to say goodbye

Unfolding in front of my eyes, love's full panoramic picture
You're my most familiar view
Occupying my gaze
It's all good alright no lie
I miss you, it spills out similar to lies

Memories take me turn back
Like a boomerang
Getting thrown far away by love
Again, turn back
Like a boomerang
That promised to follow love and come back
Lively saying "giving up on you"
Hey hey hey
Because no matter how far I fly
You're still my origin
I'll turn back toward you

Tik tak boom

Just like that time, no hesitation
I let go of my hand which was holding yours
No need to look back
Right now the wind is taking me back
Baby bye bye

No longer shaking, I turn back
That promised to follow love and come back
Under the sunlight, I leisurely walk closer to you
Hey hey hey
This time I want to
Embrace your perfection

I'll absolutely turn back
Like a boomerang

That promised to follow love and come back
Lively saying "giving up on you"
Back again
Because no matter how far I fly
