Tonight, an incredible feeling
A super strange atmosphere, oh no
Suddenly, a looming ray of light
Presents a silhouette
My body feels like it's been frozen

If you lose the good opportunity now
You'll be handcuffed
Bound to be tightly locked onto you, yeah
All your struggles will be in vain
The way to escape is cracked, there's no way
What I do do do do do

My heart has been possessed, I fear your beauty
Unable to resist, I fall into your cage
Love has been caught
My feet stopped struggling
All of me is controlled by you

Looking at you, looking at you
Looking at you, looking at you, not letting go

Getting goosebumps, the shivering doesn't stop
The feeling is powerful
A thrill is better than love
Yeah, like a thorn on your back

No expressions in your face, like a poker card
Like a mixture of children's innocent laughter
A drop difficult to fathom
My supernatural powers are vast
It's hard to withstand when facing you

My heart has been possessed, I fear your beauty
Unable to resist, I fall into your cage
Love has been caught
My feet stopped struggling
All of me is controlled by you

Looking at you, looking at you
Looking at you, looking at you, not letting go
Getting goosebumps, the shivering doesn't stop

Yeah, the darker the more I can feel it, it's great
Release me whenever you want, show ya
Show ya show ya
Show ya show ya show ya
Baby baby baby baby
Show ya show ya
Show ya show ya

Yeah, don't use that faintly smiling expression
My heart is always thoroughly understood by you
It really makes me tremble
Want to pretend to be cool, want to pretend to be free
But I can't hide my heart
I'm deeply attracted to you
I'm addicted and desire
More of the poison that is you
Lost in love's maze, how do I escape?
Even if I walk in the opposite way as you
I still can't escape your palm

You hovering over my head like blanche
The erotic dreams are your tricks
It's too dangerous, too dangerous
Overall we're familiar but I'm still caught by bare hands
Like a killer technique
Calmly facing the truth related to all your movements
Frequently a laughter
It's irresistible
I forgot how to resist
Even if I fought back with ten thousand times more power
I'll still be crushingly defeated by you

My heart has been possessed, I fear your beauty
Unable to resist, I fall into your cage
Love has been caught
My feet stopped struggling
All of me is controlled by you
