Flying up, flying up
Flying up, flying up

Girl you got me flying up
Very high, flying up
Girl you got me flying up
Very high, flying up

Where am I? A place I dreamed of
The air I breathe out becomes a white cloud
Your clear eyes become the sky
The blue dreams endlessly spread out, flying

The happiness in a blue painting
Of a dream is in you
Forget all the past sad moments
When we didn't know each other
You're such a big blessing, heaven
I wanna stay by you forever
Tell me this isn't a dream
That'll disappear or just pass by
Girl you got me

Girl you got me flying up
Very high, flying up
Girl you got me flying up
Very high, flying up
Girl you got me flying up
How did you bring me here?
Girl you got me flying up
On top of the highest cloud

A dreamy reality, is this a dream?
This disoriented feeling, do you know?
When I wake up from this dream tomorrow morning
Will I forget how to fly, forever?

It's like biting a tail, the worries are endless
But I found the answer in you
The dark black storm clouds
And fear all disappear
You're such a blessing, heaven
I wanna stay by you forever
Again, again, just once again
Tell me you love me
Girl you got me

Girl you got me
I'm looking down on the earth
This is the silver lining
There is nothing more to hope
I'll give you the love you've always dreamed of
Flying up, flying, flying up

That's what you're doing to me

Girl you got me flying up
How did you bring me here?
Girl you got me flying up
Girl you got me flying up
Very high, flying up
Girl you got me flying up
Very high, flying up

When I'm in your arms
Heaven melts and comes inside
Take me to that place
Endlessly high place (Cloud 9)

The happiness in a blue painting
Of a dream is in you
Girl you got me

Girl you got me
I've reached the embrace of the sun
Until eternity

Girl you got me flying up
Very high, flying up
Girl you got me flying up
Very high, flying up
Girl you got me flying up
How did you bring me here?
Girl you got me flying up

Flying up, flying up
