First Love

Exo

Oh oh oh oh (the secret diary of my first love) ah-yeah

Step by step, I follow you
Without you knowing, I match my footsteps with yours
Your scent passes by my clothes
Why am I so nervous? It's so sweet
That small and pretty hand is almost about to touch
Almost about to touch, it tickles my heart
I'm holding onto this soft warmth
Our innocent love story has only been told to me

My heart (is white) my cheeks (are red)
Our eyes are locked (black) my sky turns (yellow)
It feels like I'm floating above the clouds
It feels like I could fly, this gentle heart pounding

You came to me and bloomed (a pretty single stemmed rose)
You are my light (my light that shines in my heart)
A secret that no one knows (a secret only we want to keep)
The most dazzling picture (my picture, such a beautiful picture, love)

Every day, I practiced
All the sweet sweet words
But when you look at me and smile
They all melt down, out of my memory
But nothing else is needed
When it comes to a boy and girl's first love
With clear eyes, you whispered to me
And in that reflection, I am smiling

My heart (is white) my cheeks (are red)
Our eyes are locked (black) my sky turns (yellow)
Everything looks different
Why am I wandering through dreams every day?

Everyone has this dream at least once
Even your name makes my heart flutter, this dream called first love
I'm falling deeper and deeper, like a child who has seen the world for the f irst time
The unknown mystery that is you, I want to get to know one by one

Teach me what love is, only you can teach me
Slowly draw it on a white piece of paper so only I can see
Every day, it's crazy, I will be with you, I dream baby
Love you baby baby

You came to me without a sound, carefully spreading more and more
Everything I got to know through you is beautiful
I want to fall asleep forever in this dream

My heart (is white) my cheeks (are red)
Our eyes are locked (black) my sky turns (yellow)
The moment I stepped inside your world
I was born again
