Growl

Exo

Yo, okay

I'm warning you just in case (listen carefully)
It's dangerous now (so dangerous)
Stop provoking me (there's going to be trouble)
I don't even know myself

My breath keeps on stopping
You walk towards me
You smile at me
Maybe you're attracted to me too

My sights become dark
When you stare at me
The sound of your breathing
You're the one that makes me crazy

So nobody can look at you (when you smile)
I want to hide you inside my embrace (I'm so serious)
The stares that are after you
Wakes up inside me
There's a harsh/fierce swirl/storm

A dark shadow has woken up inside of me
Sparks fly in my eyes as I look at you
Everyone step away from her (step away)
It's going to get fierce from now on
I'm growling, growling, growling
I'm growling, growling, growling
I'm growling, growling, growling
If you don't back away then I don't care if you get hurt

With agitated stare and cutting tension
I'm searching your surroundings
You just stay still and look at me
I'll never let you go you'll see

The stares that are seeking you who's vividly shining in the blurry space
The sound of the alarm is ringing in me

A dark shadow has woken up inside of me
Sparks fly in my eyes as I look at you
Everyone step away from her (step away)
It's going to get fierce from now on
I'm growling, growling, growling
I'm growling, growling, growling
I'm growling, growling, growling
If you don't back away then I don't care if you get hurt

E X O

Just in case another wolf looks at you
Because my girl is too perfect
I hold you softly within me (OR) I embrace you softly
I become violent just for you

Only the strong one gets the beautiful woman

Just go back because there's no place
You have zero chance
Stop looking you're going to wear her out
If you desire her you have to win against me first

Let's erase everyone one by one except us
Paused as if only you and I exist here

A dark shadow has woken up inside of me
Sparks fly in my eyes as I look at you
Everyone step away from her (step away)
It's going to get fierce from now on
I'm growling, growling, growling
I'm growling, growling, growling
I'm growling, growling, growling
If you don't back away then I don't care if you get hurt

I'm growling, growling, growling
I'm growling, growling, growling
I'm growling, growling, growling
If you don't back away then I don't care if you get hurt
