

Peter Pan

Exo

I brush off the dust on the old diary The inside that suddenly opened up, brightly
You are there still Like before, you are remained
I recall the pictures that I lived forgetting The little tremblings splurge in my body
It's a bit of a sad thing that we can't go back to that time

I'm going to look for you Tinker bell that the memories sent Neverland that followed through
At that place While looking at each other, were we smiling
Forever your peter pan. Your man that stopped the that time
Although I'm lacking, I'm running to my you that I loved so much

The mischievous rascal that bothered you a lot The defeated memories are vivid
Starting from that time I gained your heart and even a kiss
My heart was always flying while riding a cloud
You were prettier than Wendy, Cinderella
Because I feel you, the one person that makes my heart beat My two eyes shine

I'm going to look for you Tinker bell that the memories sent Neverland that followed through
at that place While looking at each other, were we smiling
Forever your peter pan. Your man that stopped the that time
Although I'm lacking, I'm running to my you that I loved so much

The face that shows the pinkish color The feeling of walking on the clouds (Although we were together)
Baby boo! The picture like You that my heart beated to! (Although I wanted to hold on)
That time like when your eyes that gently smiled (Although I put out my hand Oh!)
If you were to fly to me right now through the open window in the part of my heart (You get farther Away)

You that I bottled in my fairy tale, as always, lingering around sweet girl (Don't leave)
I'm still trembling the part of my heart that you're not in this place is a lonely island (The me from that time)
You that is written in my memories pretty girl that won't get erased! (is here right now Oh!)
My heart is still beating the one part of my heart that you're not in (Where could you be)

Our relationship that shows of a watch spring How much would it have changed
Although I turned one page that I lastly wrote about you in, no longer
Do I have the strength to read on I'm going to erase the sad writings
It's not going to be the end of our story
Because I'm going to meet you again
