

Goliath

Exodus

Enormous entity
Who feeds on doubts and fears
Colossal creature
Lying dormant all these years
His slumber now disturbed
He begins to rise
He's here to end our suffering
To see us euthanized

Mankind will look
Upon his face with shock and awe
A figure so sickening
Like none we can recall
A terror so complete
All joy disqualified
He is Goliath, he is hate exemplified

He will liberate us this pain
We will consecrate his reign
Great daemonium unclean
All hail the glory of the hate machine

We will worship at his feet
Or be trampled into dust
All non-believers
Will be treated with disgust
The penalty for choosing
Not to fall in line
Is to be brought before his throne
To look inside his mind

He will liberate us this pain
We will consecrate his reign
Great daemonium unclean
All hail the glory of the hate machine
