

The Changing Me

Exodus

Static fuels the fight inside my head
Another day, another night, all filled with dread
Cannot tell what's real or fantasy
Manic madness consuming me

The terror, the noises
The screaming, the voices
The anger, aggression
The apathy, depression

Blankly stare into the mirror
All the thoughts are filled with fear
Stripping memories of the past
How long will this sickness last?

I don't know who I am
The walls are now closing in
This hell, thoughts stripped away
Trapped inside my mind's decay
My mind's decay
Mind's decay
Mind's decay

Gaping maw feasts on what I think
Identity shredded on sanity's brink
Collapsed cognition feeds upon my brain
Mind devoured, I can't recall my name

The terror the noises
The screaming, the voices
The anger, aggression
The apathy, depression

I blankly stare into the mirror
All the thoughts are filled with fear
Stripping memories of the past
How long will this sickness last?

I don't know who I am
The walls are now closing in
This hell, thoughts stripped away
Trapped inside my mind's decay

I don't know who I am
The walls are now closing in
This hell, thoughts stripped away
Trapped inside my mind's decay

The changing me
Rearranging me
The changing me
Rearranging me
The changing me
Rearranging me
The changing me
Rearranging me
The changing me
Rearranging me

The changing me
Rearranging me
The changing me
Rearranging me
