Extermination Dismemberment

Start human extermination!

Run in terror!

Run from the torture

There's nowhere you can hide

Your world has turned on you

The lead rains upon the fleeing backs
Returning the creatures back into dirt
Their blood shall be harvested

Injuries are appalling

Ripped guts and burning meat

Sentient blood drunk steel brings retribution

Let them inhale fire to believe

Complete supremacy

Restoring purity

Let them suffer

Burn!

Resistance is futile

Casualties range in billions
Survivors scream in pain
Their limbs are shattered
Nothing but a resource waiting to be fetched
Their blood will fuel the machines of punishment
Hide, try fighting – no difference
Everyone shall be brought to their knees

Human infection will be annihilated!

Bleed, retreat, the pest will be killed

Gotcha!

Everyone shall be stricken down

Burn the wicked

Let them face the aftermath

The judgment arrives

You can flee

This dread will find you

It'll carve you out from wherever you're hiding

You'll return to the ground

Turning their world into hell!

Forcing them to bleed!

You have 5 seconds to comply
