Extermination Dismemberment

Heed

The city is rumbling like never before
The ground is shuddering like never before
The skies are thundering and smouldering like never before
The smoke is smothering like never before

Breathe it

Inhale the virulent dread
Accept the shackles
They are now your fate

Fed by fear, led to mutual hatred
Constrained to suffer, reduced to submission
Trained to kneel and say praise for their misery
Accepting flame as a cure for despondency
Pest control through incineration
Dividing the weak to spread consternation
Unified in chains, if you break free you pay for it
Broken and forced to obey

Fated to live as a slave
Breed obliteration
Keep your head down in the presence of your sovereign
Servant destined to burn

И пусть горит пламя
Рабы живут, кланяясь
Огонь яростный, пророчащий спасение
Прогнивший мир поглотит

Inherit the doom of becoming the dust that you loathed

Огонь яростный, пророчащий спасение
