

Ruins Of Armageddon

Extermination Dismemberment

Target acquired

Extermination!

Extermination!

Extermination!

Dismemberment

Ravaging the territory, achieving subjugation

Look how the tables have turned

Dominance asserted

Born into a world of endless tyranny

Senseless terror, self-annihilation

They have come to understand the irony

Of futile delinquency

Choirs of slit throats speak the truth the loudest

Manacles around dead hands dictate the law

Smoking ruins of the world they longed for

Rise above their scattered bones

Decontamination!

Dehumanization protocol is now complete!

Purity!

Extreme, apoplectic, waging their sacred wars

Breathing the fumes of their lies, forespeaking terrors

Raised is every memory of these intruders

Their warnings were never prophetic

Descending into the everlasting chaos

Devouring its host, spreading like a viral blight

This infection has now been cauterized by

The purest of all cures - eternal hell

Nameless bodies serve the sacred purpose

To lay the bedrock for the new world

Soaked in blood and gore is the path to

The restoring of the tarnished earth

Search for the last sources of the human virus!

Decontamination!

Dehumanization protocol is now complete!

Purity!

Engaging in slaughter, inviolable slaughter

Mere scared animal led to be decimated

Contact!

Rotting in sewers, forsaken

Deep under the ash and charred bones

Once living prideful lives, rejecting clear warnings

Now but mere rats dying in the depths

Fertilizing the roots, returning their debt

Sector clear

Sacrifice!
I hereby offer my enemies!
Settling the score!
And so it came to pass!

Sacrifice!
Flesh and blood of my enemies!
Settling the score!
Arise, the new world!

Dehumanization protocol complete
