

Death Message

Extreme Noise Terror

You! And your fucking system
Based on fucking lies and indoctrination
For your own selfish gains
You! Who live in luxury and hunt down the underprivileged by trying to ensure we can't be happy unless we follow your rules
You! Who try and enforce your fucked up self - opinionated rules, of do as you're told or live a life of misery
Expecting us to work for fuck all, all to fund your extravagant alla consuming lifestyle
Creating a culture of knife and gun wielding backward, lowlife kids, patrolling our streets and pursuing the weak
You fucking sum, it's gone too far

You! And your society of greed that you've created, will always pick on the ones who never get a fair chance of a start in life and anyone you find as easy meat
You! And your fucking shit system spending all our nations resources on war and forcing us all into life of 'crime' and suicides
Let all those deaths be on your conscience
Fuck you all and see you in hell
I'll live and die by my rules not yours
Not fucking yours
