

Short Fuse

Extreme Noise Terror

Enslaved by fear, its free thoughts demise
Reason left ignored, replaced by the stench of lies
Force-fed corruption, swallowed by closed minds
Selfish greed clouding, thoughts not seen.

All is dead, in the land of living hell.

Collective mind breeds fear, consumes a hate disease
A sense of past, empty void overflowing greed
Making war on those you don't understand
Tyrant in the name of peace.
