Star
You're a star
Yeah be careful
What
You're wishing for
All your dreams
Coming true
Star yes you are
You're now bigger
Than Venus and Mars
You can run
But you can't hide

So
You're gonna make it
Chance
You're gonna take it
Tinseltown
Is calling your name
Penny in your pocket
Walking like a prophet
Fortune teller
Claiming your fame

Arriving in style
On the
Red carpet mile
To the left
To the right
Step aside
As you wave
To the crowd
A voice
Cries out loud
Look at you
You're the new
Overnight sensation

Star
You're a star
Yeah, be careful
What
You're wishing for
All your dreams
Coming true
Star yes you are
You're now bigger
Than Venus and Mars
You can run
But you can't hide

A paparazzi
Public domain
Dirty little secret

Guess
She couldn't keep it
At least you made it
On the front page

A tabloid be told
All that glitters
Ain't gold
Not a muse
Drug abuse suicide
All alone
After
Selling your soul
In the aisle, smile
Ready
For your close up

You're a star
Yeah be careful
What
You're wishing for
All your dreams
Coming true
Star yes you are
You're now bigger
Than Venus and Mars
You can run
But you can't hide
Stars in your eyes
Got
Your piece of the pie
In the sky
Don't look down
As you hang on

Hanging on
For your life
For you're better off
Dead then alive
Then they love you
Forever
