

Sacred Defense

Exumer

Keep bleeding intense too shallow your defense
In torment, in pain I watch the strength I gain

Lost souls we factor in
Cold hearts we dare to sin
And now you're faltering
Because the weak won't win

Deception and lies the sum of your disguise
Rapid the shame as bodies are tossed in flames

Lost souls we factor in
Cold hearts we dare to sin
And now you're faltering
Because the weak won't win

Your god repents to me he serves the travesty
You stay on your knees as I burn the trinity

Redemption or loss I am the only cause
Deflecting the truth I carry your abuse

Lost souls we factor in
Cold hearts we dare to sin
And now you're faltering
Because the weak won't win
