

Shadow Walker

Exumer

Tread on lightly on your set course we will hurt you if you dare pause
Don't look back nothing's left there misery's your friend and I am despair
Shadows cast as you dare walk penetrate the armors of hope
Blessed the son you have just lost bear the brunt of angry gods force

Fearless and insane
Walk them down again
Menace to you all
You won't break the fall
The dead are watching now

The devil wanders in these here lands he plunders,
Murders with his cold hands
Torches burn to reap for lost souls reciting prayers their fathers once told
Jesters, liars we all gather here to sing the gospel of hatred and fear
Slaves to books of deceit we embrace
Spread the message of man's disgrace

Fearless and insane
Walk them down again
Menace to you all
You won't break the fall

Death is waiting spirits talk
Light is fading you shall walk
In the shadow of your fear
Hear these voices loud and clear

Fearless and insane
Walk them down again
Menace to you all
You won't break the fall
