

If you let me take the wheel, I'll drive you crazy, girl
No one can make you feel the way I make you feel 'cause
I'm gonna rock you like a band, rock on your hand, rock 'til the end

Girl, we getting married
Baguettes on your French tips, ma chérie
I need you all to myself, not sharing

Ooh, whoa
I'd lie for you, I'd die for you, throw a body in the trunk and electric slide for you
No limit to what I would do (Huh, huh)
I'm attracted 'cause your back end is fatter than the back end
I'm chasing
My favorite Dalmatian, your spot can't be taken

Said you wouldn't leave me from the start
And I don't wanna question you anymore
I wish I wasn't working
Gonna get you that Birkin
Baby girl, you're so worth it

Baby, is it okay to call you mine?
I promise I'm gon' make it worth your time
Your heart, I cannot break it, it's hard to find

You know that I'm the one
I'm the one for you
I can't make you fall in love
I can't control you
Promise you will cum
When I met you, I was numb
I was always doing drugs, oh
Oh

You said you wouldn't leave me from the start
And I don't wanna question you anymore
I wish I wasn't working
Gonna get you that Birkin
Baby girl, you're so worth it
